DELIMITATION COMMISSION OF INDIA

Nirvachan Sadan, Ashoka Road, New Delhi – 110001

No. 282/AS/2007

Dated: 20th June, 2007
30 Jyaistha, 1929(Saka)

NOTICE

The Delimitation Commission has published in the Gazette of India Extraordinary, and in the Assam State Gazette, both dated 22nd May, 2007, its proposals for the delimitation of Parliamentary and Assembly Constituencies in the State of Assam for the purpose of elections to the House of the People and the Legislative Assembly of the State. The Commission vide its notice dated the 22nd May, 2007 invited objections and suggestions in relation to the said proposals by the 6th June, 2007. The date was subsequently extended upto 11th June, 2007.

2. To consider the objections and suggestions received by the Commission, a schedule for holding the public sittings on 16th June, 2007 at Jorhat and on 18th, and 19th June, 2007 at Guwahati was notified by the Commission.

3. The public sittings, as scheduled, could not be held at the two places as the Commission decided to postpone the said public sittings keeping in view the reports in the newspapers and in electronic media that the people might violently disrupt the public sittings in protest against the ongoing delimitation process in the State.

4. The Commission vide its Order dated 18th June, 2007 observed that in the prevailing circumstances it did not see the possibility of any change in the situation with regard to opposition to Delimitation proposals. Therefore, in this surcharged atmosphere and in the prevailing situation it may not be of much use to hold the public sittings in the State as the public may be prevented from entering the venue of public sitting itself and may be even physically harmed. As a result, persons who had earlier made their suggestions and objections in response to the Commission's public notice dated 22nd May, 2007, may have been deprived of making their oral submissions in support or elaboration of their earlier written submissions at the said public sittings. The Commission has, therefore, decided to invite further suggestions and objections, if any, or further clarifications and elaborations to the suggestions and objections already submitted by individuals, if they so desire.

5. Now, therefore, the Commission hereby invites further suggestions and objections, if any, from those persons who could not submit the same earlier, as well as further clarifications and elaborations from those persons who have earlier submitted their suggestions and objections by the 11th June, 2007, in response to the Commission's Notice dated 22nd May, 2007. Such persons who desire to give further suggestions and objections or clarify or elaborate on their earlier suggestions and objections, may now forward the same by post to the Secretary, Delimitation Commission, Nirvachan Sadan, Ashoka Road, New Delhi-110001 on or before 17:00 hrs on 5th July, 2007. The individuals who have made the suggestions and objections may meet any of the Member of the Delimitation Commission, if they desire to explain in person the suggestions and objections made by them with regard to draft delimitation proposals in respect of the State Assam.
