DO No.675/MLJ/VIP/2012
February 13, 2012

Dear Chief Election Commissioner,

I feel disturbed with the developments arising out of one of my statements made in the course of the election campaign. It has also caused me equal measure of sadness. It has never been my intention to transgress the Law or the Model Code of Conduct. I have great respect for the Commission and the decisions it takes and has taken.

2. I treat this matter as unfortunate and regret the statement. I bow to the wisdom of the Election Commission and remain personally committed to ensure that such situations do not arise.

3. As responsible citizens of this country it is our obligation to promote the spirit of law, its adherence and enforcement. This is the ethos on which I have woven my entire life and am committed to the Election Commission's effort towards the conduct of a free and fair election process.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Salman Khurshid)
